

Our Committees & Convenings

At Provecho Collective, we believe lasting change happens when people come together—not just to share ideas, but to shape decisions and lead the way forward.

Our committees and convenings bring together community advocates, grassroots leaders, farmers, and organizational partners who care deeply about Colorado's food system. Whether you bring lived experience with hunger, professional expertise, or a passion for food justice, there's a place for you at our table.

Bi-Weekly

COMMUNITY VOICE COMMITTEE*
